SCHOOL-BASED COUNSELING SERVICES

About Us

HerHealing Community is a non-profit 501 (c)(3) that provides school-based counseling services, parent workshops, & staff trainings to schools in Los Angeles. HerHealing has been providing school-based counseling services and supporting teachers, families, and kids for over 10 years.

HerHealing Community works with schools to create a counseling program specific to their communities needs. We provide individual, family, and group therapy using a holistic and trauma informed approach. We also provide specific counseling and services to students with Individualized Education Plans (IEP).

Services

HerHealing Community provides school based therapy which includes individual therapy, group therapy, student workshops on various topics including trauma, self-care, sexual assault & harassment. HerHealing Community also provides school trainings and workshops for staff and parents.

Process Groups

We offer various process groups to meet the needs of the specific students at our schools. Workshops include: Loss of a Loved One, Social Skills, Healthy Relationships, and Self-esteem.

IEP Counseling

HerHealing Community works with special education personnel and school psychologist to ensure students receive accurate treatment goals and skill-based interventions. We provide weekly counseling to students who have DIS (Designated Instructional Service) Counseling as well as the general population who are struggling to succeed academically in order to enhance their ability to learn.

Consent Workshops

HerHealing Community provides sexual harassment and consent workshops to middle and high school students. We also create additional workshops based on the students and schools needs.
